Functions and Responsibilities of the NSS/NCC CELL

NSS (National Service Scheme):

NSS is a voluntary service program for students in India. Its primary objective is to develop the personality and character of students through community service. Key aspects of NSS include:

- ❖ Voluntary Service: NSS is entirely voluntary, and students join to contribute to society and community development voluntarily.
- ❖ Community Engagement: NSS participants engage in various community service activities such as environmental conservation, health camps, literacy drives, and social awareness campaigns.

- ❖ Personality Development: NSS aims to foster qualities like leadership, teamwork, and empathy among students while also promoting a sense of civic responsibility.
- ❖ Regular Camps: NSS organizes regular camps and activities, including special camps, to provide students with hands-on experience in serving the community.
- ❖ Awareness Programs: NSS conducts awareness campaigns on important issues such as health, hygiene, sanitation, and social justice.
- ❖ Credits and Certificates: NSS participants often earn academic credits and certificates for their service, which can enhance their academic and employment prospects.

NCC (National Cadet Corps):

NCC is a structured youth organization that focuses on developing leadership skills, discipline, and a sense of patriotism among Indian students. Key aspects of NCC include:

- ❖ Military Training: NCC provides students with basic military training, including drill, physical fitness, and weapon handling (for senior division cadets).
- ❖ Leadership Development: NCC aims to nurture leadership qualities and character development among students, preparing them for leadership roles in various fields.
- ❖ Adventure Activities: NCC cadets have opportunities to participate in adventure activities such as trekking, mountaineering, and para jumping.
- ❖ Community Service: Similar to NSS, NCC also engages in community service activities like blood donation drives, tree planting, and disaster relief efforts.
- ❖ Camps and Competitions: NCC cadets attend camps, participate in sports and shooting competitions, and engage in cultural and social events.
- ❖ Regular Parades: NCC cadets take part in regular parades and drills, instilling discipline and a sense of responsibility.
- ❖ Employment and Defence Services: NCC experience can be advantageous for students seeking careers in the armed forces, as it provides additional points during recruitment.
